

GERMAN INVADERS MEET A REPULSE

Russians Check Drive of Prussian Guard Through Baltic Provinces, According to Petrograd Announcement.

PETROGRAD, May 13.—Another reverse for the German army that invaded the Baltic provinces of Russia is reported in an official statement by the Russian war office today. The Germans have transferred a regiment of the Prussian guard, the flower of the German army, to the battle front in Courland and Kovno provinces and a whole corps is expected to follow. The official statement follows: "As a result of the German defeat near Mitau and Rosovsky, German strategic positions in the region of Shavli have become more clearly defined. The Germans in the direction of Mitau, Ponevezh and Kovno, being hard pressed by the Russians, decided upon the desperate step of delivering a series of offensive blows. These operations were begun in the district of Shavli, the Germans meanwhile having occupied the railway junction of Jemny on Saturday.

"On that day our cavalry came in contact with the Bavarian cavalry and put it to flight. About midday on Sunday our troops came up with the fleeing Bavarians near Krakiv, covering a distance of more than 20 miles. Two engagements were fought. The defeat of the German raiders in our rear will necessarily affect the progress of operations in the Shavli region. The enemy's defeat leads to the belief that he will shortly receive reinforcements. The presence of a regiment of the Prussian guards on this front indicates that a whole corps of the guard will shortly be transferred to Courland and Kovno provinces from the western theater of war."

BELLE DAVIS DISMISSED

Charges of conducting a house of ill fame were dismissed against Belle Davis in city court Thursday morning. Detective Shirk and Sgt. Barnhart, the officers who raided her place, were unable to furnish the state with sufficient evidence to warrant a prosecution. It was said. A former suspended sentence of 30 days in jail and a fine were recorded against the woman.

"FIRED" FROM AMERICAN EMBASSY BY GERARD

Naturalized U. S. Citizen Tells Ambassador He Could Show That Bryan Accepted British Bribes.

MARION, Ind., May 13.—Word was received here today that Maurice Somborn, a naturalized American citizen who for several years has represented the National Sweeper Co. of this city and the Standard Sweeper Co. of Torrington, Conn., in Gary, was forcibly ejected from the American embassy at Berlin by orders of Ambassador Gerard.

Somborn, according to allegations, told the American ambassador that he had evidence that Sec'y of State Bryan had "accepted British bribes."

Mr. Gerard resented the insult to the secretary of state and ordered Somborn from the legation. When Somborn refused to comply, the services of a butler were brought into action.

The report added that Gerard intended to ask the German government to expel Somborn from the country.

The officers of the National Sweeper Co. here disclaimed any knowledge of Somborn's troubles, but understand that Somborn is soon to return to the United States.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE AMONG CAVALRY HORSES

Quarantine Animals Put Under Observation While Six With the Symptoms Are Killed.

CHICAGO, May 13.—All the cavalry horses at Fort Sheridan were under quarantine today following the discovery of symptoms of hoof and mouth disease in six of the animals. The diseased horses, after careful observation, were destroyed by the post veterinarian.

Col. Michaelson, commandant of the post, ordered that none of the 212 cavalry horses be permitted outside of the post reservation. The horses discovered afflicted with the disease were believed to have brought it to Fort Sheridan from a camp in Arizona where they were quartered last year.
